Re: College Scholarship Opportunities

Brethren:

The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction has an active scholarship program for high school graduates and college students. One of these programs supports students attending Texas A&M University in College Station and is sponsored by a Texas Freemason and member of the Houston Scottish Rite.

The application process for these scholarships is currently underway and will close on April 20, 2022. There are four $1,500 one-year scholarships available for undergraduate and graduate students who are or will be attending Texas A&M University during the 2022 academic year. Applicant criteria include being a Master Mason, Scottish Rite Mason in the Southern Jurisdiction, or child or grandchild of a Texas Master Mason or of a Master Mason who is a member of a Masonic Grand Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Texas.

Complete applicant criteria and application can be found on the Scottish Rite website at <https://scottishrite.org/philanthropy/scholarships/national/>. Please share this information and this letter with the members of your Masonic Lodges, Scottish Rite Valleys, DeMolay Chapters, and Rainbow Assemblies. Please assist us in letting our Texas young women and men know about these Scottish Rite Scholarships at Texas A&M University as well as other Scottish Rite Scholarships and encourage them to apply for them if qualified. Remember the application deadline is April 20, 2022, and applications must be submitted online through the Scottish Rite website.

If you have questions concerning these scholarships, please contact the Scottish Rite House of Temple in Washington, D.C. at scholarships@scottishrite.org.
